

Learning Disabilities Worldwide (LDW®) invites you to join us for two exciting conference days dedicated to

RESPONSE TO INTERVENTION (RTI)

RTI: What Works? What Doesn't? And Why?

Keynote Speaker: Alexa Posny, Ph.D.

Assistant Secretary of the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services
United States Department of Education
Manhattanville College
Purchase, New York, USA
November 3, 2011
8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

And/Or

RTI: What Works?

Keynote Speaker: Jim Wright, M.S.

International Expert on Response to Intervention Intervention Central
Bridgehampton Union Free School District
2685 Montauk Highway, Bridgehampton, New York, USA
November 8, 2011
8:00 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Conference attendees will have the opportunity to hear a keynote speaker and then attend sessions hosted by experts in the field of RTI and successful RTI school teams willing to share their expertise. Topics will include, but not be limited to, developing a strong problem-solving team; using data to inform decision making and instruction; developing interventions that work; behavioral interventions; interpreting data; using technology to reach/teach students; successful instructional support team practices; research-based strategies; developing a strong RTI plan. In addition, at the conference on November 3, 2011, we will sponsor the International Research Symposia, with presentations and participation of researchers from around the world. Please plan to join us. Pre-conference brochures will be available late spring.

*Response to Intervention (RTI) Invitation
LDW® Conferences and Events*